Essential information

This section of the document contains our guidance on whether or not you can stand for election at a mayoral election in England. Supplementary information, which may only be relevant to some candidates, is provided at the back of this document. You can also view this supplementary guidance by clicking on the links within this document or by clicking on the chapter heading on the contents page.

We are here to help, so please contact your local Commission team if you have any questions. See our Overview document for contact details.

In this document, we use 'you' to refer to the candidate. We use 'must' to refer to a specific legal requirement and 'should' for recommended practice.

Deadlines mentioned in this document are generic. We have published a generic election timetable on our website. Once an election has been called, you will be able to obtain a copy of the specific timetable for that election from the Returning Officer.

Completing your nomination papers

1.1 To become nominated as a candidate at a mayoral election in England, you need to submit a completed set of nomination papers to the place fixed by the Returning Officer by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. This deadline is set out in law and cannot be changed for any reason. The start date from which you will be able to submit nomination papers, as well as the times and place for delivery, will be set out in the official notice of election published by your local Returning Officer.

Alongside your nomination papers, you must also lodge a deposit of £500 with the Returning Officer. See paragraph 1.29 for further details.

1.2 There are two nomination papers that you must submit to make your nomination valid:

- the nomination form
- your consent to nomination

1.3 To stand on behalf of a registered political party, you will also need:

- A certificate authorising you to use the party name or a registered description on the ballot paper (known as the certificate of authorisation). For more details on the certificate of authorisation, see paragraph 1.13.
- A written request to use one of the party's emblems (if you would like one to appear on the ballot paper). For more information on the emblem request form, see paragraph 1.18.

1.4 You can obtain nomination papers from your local elections office. Contact details can be obtained from our About My Vote website www.aboutmyvote.co.uk. Alternatively, the Commission has produced a set of nomination papers that you could use.

1.5 If you, your agent or someone you trust are unable to complete the nomination form, the Returning Officer can help by preparing the form for your signature.

1.6 The Returning Officer may also be able to offer informal checks of your completed nomination papers before you submit them.

1.7 Note that any information you provide on your nomination papers must be true to the best of your knowledge. It is an offence to provide a false statement on your nomination papers. Providing a false statement could invalidate your election, and is also punishable by a maximum fine of £5,000 (or unlimited if convicted on indictment) and/or imprisonment of up to six months (or a year if convicted on indictment)

The nomination form

1.8 A nomination form must be completed in English. The form must contain:

- Your full name. This means your surname and other names in full. Using initials only could lead to your nomination form being rejected. Also, do not use prefixes such as Mr, Mrs, Dr or Cllr as part of your name. The same applies to suffixes. However, if you have a title, you can use this as your full name. For example, if your actual name is Joseph Smith but your hereditary title is Joseph Avon, you can use the name Joseph Avon as your full name.
- Your full home address. Your home address:
 - must be completed in full
 - must not contain abbreviations
 - must be your current home address
 - must not be a business address (unless you run a business from your home)

Unless you are relying on the qualification of having lived in the area in the last 12 months or being registered as an elector for the local authority area, your home address does not need to be in the local authority in which you wish to stand for election as mayor.

- Signatures of 30 registered electors (known as subscribers) from the local authority (this can include people from one ward, or from different wards within the area). The subscribers must appear on the register that is in force on the 25th working day before the poll. For further information, see paragraph 1.70.

1.9 The following is optional:

- A commonly used name – if you commonly use a name that is different from your actual name and you wish this to appear on the ballot paper, you need to state this on the nomination form. More details are provided in paragraph 1.63.
- A description – you can ask for either the party's name as registered with the Commission or one of the party's registered descriptions to appear on the ballot paper underneath your name.

Your name, address and any description should be written on the nomination form before you ask subscribers to sign the form.

To find out how to obtain the electoral register, see:

- Part 4: The Campaign

If you want to use a party name or description, you must submit alongside your other nomination papers a certificate that shows that you are authorised to use the party's name or description (known as a certificate of authorisation). The certificate must be issued by the registered party's Nominating Officer (or someone authorised to act on their behalf) and be received by the Returning Officer by the nominations deadline, i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. Further information on the certificate is provided in paragraph 1.13.

Registered party names and registered descriptions can be found on our online register.

If you are standing on behalf of two or more parties, you may use a joint description as registered with the Commission. In that case, you will need authorisation from the Nominating Officer for each of the registered parties (or people authorised to act on their behalf).

You should take particular care when completing the descriptions field on the nomination form. The party name/description used on the nomination paper must exactly match the party name/description on the Commission's online register of political parties. If it does not, the whole nomination paper will be rejected.

Note that you do not have to use a description. You may choose not to have a description at all by leaving the description field of the form blank.

Consent to nomination

1.10 You must also formally consent to your nomination in writing. The content of the consent to nomination form is fixed by law and the entire form must be returned in order for your nomination to be valid. On the form you will be asked to state that you are qualified and not disqualified from standing. You must also state your date of birth.

1.11 You must meet at least one of the qualifications to stand for election, as explained in Part 1: Can you stand for election?. On the consent to nomination form you should state as many of the qualifications as apply.

1.12 You are not allowed to sign the consent form earlier than one calendar month before the deadline for submitting your nomination papers. Your signature must be witnessed, and the witness must sign the form and give their full name and address. There are no restrictions on who can be a witness to the consent to nomination.

The certificate of authorisation

1.13 Political parties authorise candidates to stand for them by issuing a certificate of authorisation. This must state that the named candidate can stand on their behalf and allow them to use one of the following:

- the exact party name as registered with the Commission
- a particular registered description
- your choice of either the registered party name or one of the registered descriptions.

1.14 Particular care should be taken by the Nominating Officer (or someone authorised to act on their behalf) when completing the certificate of authorisation. If the certificate explicitly authorises a particular party name/description and this does not match the party name/description on the nomination paper, the whole nomination will be invalid.

1.15 The certificate of authorisation must be signed by the registered Nominating Officer of the political party or by someone authorised by the Nominating Officer to act on their behalf.

Request to use an emblem on the ballot paper

1.16 If you have been authorised by a political party to use the party name or a description on the ballot paper, you can also request that one of the party's official emblems is printed on the ballot paper next to your name.

1.17 You must make the request for an emblem in writing and deliver it to the Returning Officer. The request must be received by the Returning Officer before 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The Returning Officer will supply you with a form you can use to make this request or, alternatively, you can use the emblem request form produced by the Commission.

1.18 The request should state both the name of the political party and the description of the emblem to be used, as listed on the Commission's online register of political parties. Registered emblems cannot be varied in any way.

1.19 Candidates standing on behalf of two or more registered parties and using a joint description can use an emblem that has been registered by one of the relevant parties. The request must be made in writing and delivered to the Returning Officer by the close of nominations, i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The Returning Officer will supply you with a form you can use to make this request or, alternatively, you can use the emblem request form produced by the Commission. The request should state the name of the political party that has registered the emblem you wish to use and the description of the emblem to be used, as listed on the Commission's online register of political parties.

Submitting your nomination papers

1.20 All nomination papers, including the consent to nomination, certificate of authorisation and emblem request form, must be delivered to the place specified on the notice of election by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. For details on submitting the deposit, see paragraph 1.29 below. It is your responsibility to ensure that your nomination papers are delivered in the correct manner and by the required deadlines. We recommend that you, your agent, or someone you trust hand-delivers them, so you can be sure they are delivered to the Returning Officer in time.

1.21 The nomination form and consent to nomination must be submitted by hand and cannot be submitted by post, fax, e-mail or other electronic means. The certificate of authorisation and the emblem request form may be submitted by post, but may not be submitted by fax, e-mail or other electronic means.

1.22 The original version of each completed paper must be submitted.

1.23 You should submit your nomination papers as early as possible to give the Returning Officer an opportunity to conduct an informal check and to give you sufficient time to submit new nomination papers should your first set contain any errors.

1.24 The notice of election will be published no later than 25 working days before the poll and will state the earliest date on which you can submit nomination papers. In most cases, the notice of election will be published on the local authority's website.

1.25 Usually, nomination papers can only be delivered during normal office hours. The Returning Officer will confirm the exact details of when and where they can be delivered on the official notice of election. You will be able to contact the Returning Officer via your local elections office. Contact details can be obtained from our About my vote website www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

1.26 You should contact the Returning Officer as soon as possible to find out what arrangements are in place for submitting nomination papers.

1.27 After you have submitted your nomination papers you will be sent a notice by the Returning Officer to let you know whether or not your nomination is valid.

1.28 If, after you have submitted your nomination papers you change your mind and no longer want to stand for election, you can withdraw, provided you do so by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. For more details on withdrawing, see paragraph 1.33.

The deposit

1.29 By 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll you must also deposit £500 with the Returning Officer in order to be validly nominated. The deposit can be made using:

- cash (British pounds only)
- a banker's draft

1.30 The Returning Officer may also accept a deposit made by a building society cheque, a debit or credit card or an electronic funds transfer. However, they may refuse to do so. If you want to pay by card or electronic transfer, you should discuss with the Returning Officer at the earliest opportunity whether your payment method is acceptable.

1.31 After the election, the deposit will be returned to you if you poll more than 5% of the first preference votes.

What happens after the close of nominations?

1.32 The Returning Officer will publish a statement of persons nominated by 4pm on the 18th working day before the poll. The statement will include:

- the full or commonly used names, as the case may be, of all candidates validly nominated
- the names of candidates who no longer stand nominated, if any (i.e. invalid and withdrawn candidates), with the reason why they are no longer standing
- the address of each candidate
- each candidate's description (if any)

Withdrawing as a candidate

1.33 You may withdraw as a candidate by signing and submitting a withdrawal notice, which must be witnessed by one other person. There are no restrictions on who may submit the notice, but it must be delivered by hand. Your witness must also sign the notice. A notice of withdrawal can be obtained from your local Returning Officer or downloaded from our website.

1.34 The withdrawal notice must be submitted by the deadline for withdrawals (i.e. by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll). After the withdrawal deadline it is not possible to withdraw from the election, and your name will appear on the ballot paper. If the election is uncontested, you will be declared elected.

Inspecting other candidates' nomination papers

1.35 From the close of nominations until the day before the poll, nomination papers that have been delivered are open to inspection during normal office hours, and any member of the public can take a copy of them.

Will the election be contested or uncontested?

1.36 After the close of nominations, the Returning Officer will need to establish whether or not there is a need to hold a poll. If there is more than one candidate after the deadline for withdrawals, then there will be a poll.

1.37 If, however, after the deadline for withdrawals there is only one validly nominated candidate, that candidate is declared to be elected.

1.38 In this case, the Returning Officer will declare that candidate to be elected as mayor as soon as possible and will give public notice of it.

If elected at an uncontested election, candidates must still make a declaration as to their election spending.

Part 3: Spending and donations for more details.

Appointing your election agent and other agents

1.39 The election agent is the person responsible for the proper management of your election campaign and, in particular, for its financial management. You must have an election agent. If you do not appoint an agent, you will become your own agent by default.

1.40 Once appointed, only the election agent can make payments for election expenses.

1.41 You can also appoint other agents to observe the following electoral processes, which both you and your election agent are also entitled to observe:

- the opening of postal votes
- the poll
- the count

For more information about candidate spending see:

Part 3: Spending and donations

Who can be an election agent?

1.42 There are no particular qualifications needed to be an election agent and you can be your own agent if you wish.

1.43 However, the following people are not allowed to be election agents:

- the Returning Officer or a member of their staff
- a partner or clerk of the Returning Officer or a member of their staff
- anyone not entitled to vote at the election as a result of the report of an election court or a conviction for a corrupt or illegal practice under the Representation of the People Act 1983

1.44 Your party may also have specific rules about who you can appoint as an election agent.

Appointing an election agent

1.45 Because of the responsibilities attached to the role of an election agent you should consider carefully who you are going to appoint and make sure that they understand their obligations.

1.46 You must declare in writing the name, address and office address of your election agent to the Returning Officer by 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll. The declaration should be signed by you and by the agent to show their acceptance of the appointment.

1.47 The Returning Officer may provide a declaration form, or you could use the election agent declaration form produced by the Commission. If you do not appoint someone else as your agent by the deadline, you will automatically become your own agent.

1.48 Your agent's office address must be:

- within the same local government area where the election is being held, or

It is helpful to also provide a contact telephone number and email address for your election agent, so that the Returning Officer can easily contact them.

The local government area for a unitary authority is the unitary area. For a county, county borough, district or borough it is the area of that county, county borough, district or borough.

- within the UK Parliamentary constituency or constituencies which the local government area contains, or
- within a district which adjoins the local government area, or
- within a Welsh county or county borough which adjoins the local government area, or
- within a London borough which adjoins the local government area

1.49 The agent's office address will often be their home address, but it could be an office set up for the election. If you act as your own election agent, the office address is deemed to be the address you provided on your nomination form. If that address is outside the relevant area, the office address is deemed to be the address of your proposer (i.e. the first subscriber on your nomination form).

Revoking an election agent's appointment

1.50 You can revoke the appointment of your election agent at any time, including after polling day, and a new appointment can be made in the same manner as outlined above. If you revoke your election agent's appointment and do not appoint anyone else, you will be deemed to be your own election agent.

1.51 If you are acting as your own agent you can revoke your own appointment and appoint someone else as your agent.

1.52 Once an agent has signed their acceptance, they cannot resign and must fulfil the duties required of them unless you revoke their appointment.

Appointing other agents

1.53 You may appoint other people as agents to attend postal vote openings, polling stations and the count.

1.54 Anyone, apart from those listed in paragraph 1.43, can be appointed as a postal vote, polling or counting agent.

1.55 You can appoint any number of polling agents to attend each polling station, but only one polling agent for each candidate can be present in a polling station at any time. A polling agent can be appointed to attend multiple polling stations.

1.56 The number of agents who may be appointed to any particular polling station is limited to four, or such greater number as the Returning Officer decides to allow. If more than that number are appointed, the Returning Officer will draw lots to determine those people who may attend. Your right and your election agent's right to attend will remain unaffected by this.

1.57 The Returning Officer will tell you the maximum number of postal voting and counting agents you can appoint. All candidates will be allowed to appoint exactly the same number.

1.58 The request to appoint these agents must be made in writing to the Returning Officer. It must contain the names and addresses of the people being appointed. The Returning Officer will provide the relevant forms for this, or you can find postal voting, polling and counting agent appointment forms on the Commission's website.

1.59 The deadline for appointing these agents will depend on the process they are to attend. Polling and counting agents must be appointed by the fifth working day before the poll. However, appointment forms for postal voting agents only need to be submitted to the Returning Officer before the time fixed for the opening of postal votes they want to attend. The Returning Officer will give you at least 48 hours' notice before the scheduled start of each opening session.

1.60 If an agent dies or becomes incapable of acting, you may appoint another agent in their place by submitting the relevant appointment form to the Returning Officer. Any new appointment in these circumstances must be made without delay.

1.61 More information on what agents can and cannot do and what they can expect to see at postal vote opening sessions, inside polling stations and at the count, can be found in Part 5: Your right to attend key electoral events.

Death of a candidate

1.62 If a candidate dies during the election period, see paragraph 1.78 for further information on how this will affect the election.

Supplementary information

Commonly used name(s)

1.63 If you commonly use a different name from your actual name, you can ask for your commonly used name(s) to be used instead of your actual name. The commonly used name(s) would then appear on:

- the statement of persons nominated and the notice of poll, and
- the ballot papers

1.64 The Returning Officer will disallow commonly used names that are likely to mislead or confuse electors, or are obscene or offensive. If the name(s) are not permissible, the Returning Officer will write to you stating the reason for rejection. In those cases, your full name will be used instead.

1.65 You can request a commonly used forename, surname or both.

1.66 For example, you may be known by your abbreviated name 'Andy', rather than your full first name 'Andrew'. In that case, you can write 'Andy' into the commonly used forename box on the nomination paper if you would rather that name appear on the ballot paper.

1.67 You may also use initials as part of your commonly used name if you are commonly known by them.

1.68 If either the commonly used forename or surname box is left blank, then your actual forename or surname, depending on which commonly used name box has been left blank, will be used.

1.69 It is an offence to give a false statement on your nomination form. Therefore if you choose to provide a commonly used name you must ensure that it is a forename or surname which you commonly use.

Signatures of subscribers

1.70 Each nomination form needs to be signed (subscribed) by 30 electors registered in the local authority.

1.71 The first two electors will sign and print their names as proposer and seconder, and the remaining 28 as assenters.

1.72 The elector number of each subscriber as it appears on the electoral register, including the distinctive numbers or letters of the polling district, must be entered on the nomination form. The distinctive numbers/letters of the polling district can usually be found at the front of the register. Both the Returning Officer and Electoral Registration Officer will be able to advise you how the register is laid out.

1.73 You will be entitled to a free copy of the electoral register for the local authority area. You should use it to ensure that your nomination form is properly subscribed.

1.74 If a nomination form contains more than 30 subscribers' signatures, only the first 30 will be accepted. If any of the first 30 subscribers is invalid, the Returning Officer must hold the nomination form invalid, regardless of whether the form contains more than 30.

1.75 Nomination forms should not be altered once they are subscribed. All of your details should be completed before you invite anyone to subscribe your nomination. Once the Returning Officer has formally accepted a nomination form, signatures cannot be withdrawn.

Death of a candidate

1.76 If the Returning Officer is notified of a candidate's death during the election campaign or even on polling day itself (but before the declaration of the result), the poll will be cancelled.

To find out how to obtain the electoral register, see:

Part 4: The Campaign

There may be some electors on the register who have registered anonymously because of risks to their safety.

Anonymously registered electors may not subscribe nomination forms.

Anonymous electors are shown on the register with just their poll number and the letter 'N' (rather than with their name and address).

1.77 The Returning Officer will in that case order a new election to fill the vacancy. The new polling day will be within 35 working days of the day fixed for the first election. Candidates already validly nominated do not have to be nominated a second time.

1.78 Should a fellow candidate die during the campaign, the Returning Officer will provide you with further guidance.

1.79 If an already elected candidate dies after the declaration of the result, a by-election would be needed to fill the vacancy.
